

Best Practice :- 1

Title of practice

To develop digital skill for creative teachers

Introduction:-

Government Teachers College Akola and Government Teachers College Yavatmal under Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University on July 2021 A new full-fledged jockey program was launched which would run for at least a month. Through this program, future teachers studying in government faculty colleges should be able to continue their teaching with the help of technology in any unusual situation. Recognizing the need to make them technically friendly, this program has been planned by Principal Dr. Vasudha Deo of this college

Objective of the practice:-

- 1. To promote digital skill among trainee teachers.
- 2. To create awareness about use of digital skill in teaching.
- 3. To drive innovation about online mode education among trainee teachers.
- 4. To make teaching- learning pleasurable

The practice

Context- Digital education is the need of time as education is departed by online mode due to covid-19. Therefore acquiring digital skills is necessary for teachers.

The Education should be given using technology continuously in any situation. By focusing on this, the college has organized a workshop in collaboration with Government College of Education, Yavatmal on 'Digital skill for creative teachers'. Duration of workshop was from 10 July 2021 to 25 July 21 i.e. 15 days. Different session were arranged Daly. College has organized the following activities under the guidance of related experts

1st session

Dr. Shashikant Bangar on 10th July 2021 he guided for using digital skill for quality teaching and thereby save time in teaching

2nd session arranged on 11th July 2021 in this session 'DISC'

Dr. Shailesh Jaiswal guided how to use 'Google drive' for online teaching with actual usage and thereby make teaching interesting

3rd session of 'DISC' workshop was arranged on 17 July 2021.

In this session Dr. Shailesh Jaiswal covered the following skills to enhance digital knowledge of teachers.

- a) To use video for teaching and preparation for that.
- b) screen recording usage
- c) how to use available app for it
- d) Guidance by actual experimentation provided by him.

4th session of 'DISC' workshop was arranged on 18th July 2021 in this session Dr. Jaiswal guided for the following skill:-

- a) Lecturing by using video, making, editing by various softwares.
- b) To use various PPT- for it.
- c) To use Google meet app, zoom app for virtual teaching.
- d) To use 'YouTube', 'Facebook' and Google drive effectively by using various apps.

In this session Shri Shashikant Bangar also gives this valuable guidance for how to give assignments by using word walls from the digital world.

5th session was arranged on 21st July 2021 for getting valuable guidance by Harish Malpani. he guided

- a) How to prepare Google form by using various Google apps. He departed from actual experiments.

The next station was arranged on 24 July 2021 by 'DISC' workshop.

In this situation Dr. Ram Ghayalkar Sir guided for achieving the following objectives in digital teaching.

The objectives were-

To learn communicating online and thereby bring newness in teaching.

To use various tools like Google meet, zoom, Skype video, Facebook live, YouTube live, etc. their Plus and minus point also.

The next session was arranged on 25th July 2021 by 'DISC' workshop Shri Shashikant Bangar sir guide for skillful and efficient use of

PPT from quizarray PPT etc.

He provided technical knowledge for using the above skill. The most valuable thing is that he give assignments to all teachers to get actual experience regarding this skill.

Outcome of this practice:

Students learnt various digital skills like preparing PPT, videos, creating Google meet link, attending Google meet and zoom meet also., Screen recording usage, used 'Google drive', use of YouTube', Facebook and Google drive by using various apps, preparing Google by using various Google apps student it also learnt communication online Assignments were given in this workshop to practice student teachers and make them techno savvy and prepare them for bringing newness in teaching.

Digital Skills for Creative Teacher Workshop Report

Government Teachers College Akola and Government Teachers College Yavatmal under Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University on July 2021 A new full-fledged jockey program was launched which would run for at least a month. Through this program, future teachers studying in government faculty colleges should be able to continue their teaching with the help of technology in any unusual situation. Recognizing the need to make them technically friendly, this program has been planned by Principal Dr. Vasudha Deo of this college.

Named Digital Skill for Creative Teacher, the workshop was inaugurated with great enthusiasm and technical guidance. Dr. Suhas Kumar Patil, Principal, Government Teachers College, Yavatmal, who presided over the event, and Dr. Dilip Joshi, Hon'ble Dr. He guided the trainees as the inaugural speaker of the program and Hon'ble Dr. Yogesh Kute was the chief guest at the inaugural function of the workshop. Principal Lok Nayak Babuji and Mahila Mahavidyalaya Yavatmal were accompanied by Hon'ble Dr. Vasudha Dev, Principal, Government Teachers College, Akola and all the Assistant Professors and Special Invitees. Therefore, Hon'ble Dr. Vijay Nanoti, Principal, College of Science, Akola was also present

Hon'ble Shashikant Bangar Sir Akola, who was the mentor in the first session of Digital School on July 10, 2021, taught us how to be a teacher today by using technology. He also provided information on how to use technology to better understand how to use digital skills while working as a teacher.

Guided by this virtual workshop, they have imprinted their own specific guidance including video lecture making greeting virus software youtube facebook google drive During this period of covid-19, the trainee of the college should not be left behind in any field, he should be perfect in terms of technology. The workshop was organized by the principal of the college, Dr. Vasudha Deo.

Hon'ble Dr. Suhas Kumar Patil Sir gave valuable guidance to the trainees and also gave best wishes for the workshop. The workshop was conducted by Kumari Pranita Deshmukh Trainee Yavatmal Government College.

Dr Asha Dharaskar.
Coordinator.
Government College of Education, Akola.

Dr.Vasudha V Deo
Principal
Government College of Education, Akola